Dear Sir or Madam,

I have known Bill Parravano, founder of the nonprofit Comella Foundation, since 2022. As an osteopathic physician, I appreciate his dedication to this organization, and to his healing practice.

Bill has a strong background in osteopathic principles and techniques, which he uses very effectively to help people regain their health and to live pain free. I have personally experienced his treatments and was impressed with his knowledge and skill.

I believe the success of Comella Foundation will enable expanded access to care for those in need of Bill's services in order to improve the quality of their lives.

Sincerely,
